

PORTLAND METRO BEEKEEPING ASSOCIATION

BEE DAY 2022

SATURDAY, APRIL 30 2022 9AM-3PM

CHECK IN 8:30-9AM

Attendance limited to 150 people – limited parking available

Pre-registration by April 27th deadline: $35 ($20/person additional family members)

Each registration includes 1 lunch. “Additional family members” may include one partner/significant other and up to 3 children under the age of 21. Must be ordered & paid at time of registration.

Day-of registration subject to attendance limit. Pre-registration highly recommended.

Location: Foothills Honey Farm

30576 South Oswalt Rd
Colton, OR 97017

This is an active honeybee farm. Please NO smoking and NO pets.

Bring a lawn or camp chair (low-back preferred)
for your comfort during presentations

GEAR: If you don't have a bee suit, bring or wear long pants, long sleeves, hoodie to cover hair, & garden or dishwashing gloves for protection. Consider rain gear and warm clothes, sun hat, & umbrella. Closed toe shoes recommended. There will be a limited number of bee veils and suits to check out.

Complimentary snacks, coffee, and tea provided.

9:00am Welcome

9:30-10:30 1st Session: Honey Bee Diseases (Carolyn Breece, Oregon State University Bee Lab)

10:30-11:30 2nd Session: Hive Inspection – all attendees out to the hives

11:30-12:30 LUNCH & Mid-Day Raffle

12:30-1:30 3rd Session: OSU Master Beekeeper Program (Jen Larson, OSU Bee Lab)

Expert Panel: What You Need to Know as a Beekeeper

with Dewey Caron, Debby Garman, David Schwartz, and Ellen Topitzhofer

1:30-2:30 4th Session: Hive Inspection – all attendees out to the hives

2:30 Closing and Raffle

All Day: Q&A Table – “Ask the Beekeeper”

All mandatory COVID protocols will be followed

Register Online at <https://PortlandMetroBeekeepers.org>